The life of a college student involves more than just going to classes and doing work. It is a daily process of making new acquaintances and fondly remembering old ones. College is a time of new discoveries because we change in ways that were never thought imaginable. Our memories are a reflection of the past and our dreams are hopes for the future. As we reflect on student life let us be reminded of the past, passionate about the present, and enthusiastic towards the future.

The 1994-95 school year was an exciting one for TNC theatre. In the fall, the Drama Department presented the award winning play "Fiddler on the Roof". Faculty and students displayed their amazing talent and technique in its greatest form.

One of the highlights of this spectacular production was the real-life proposal of Chad Schnarr to Stacy Snodgrass during a performance of the play.

"TRADITION!"

MACBETH

The "tradition" continued with an outstanding Spring production of the Shakespearean play "Macbeth" by the Drama Department. This play was presented "in the round" at Tartar Student Center. “Some people come into our lives and quickly go.

*Some stay for a while and leave footprints on our hearts,
and we are never the same.”*

1995 Darda Dedication

Timothy F. Whittaker, Assistant Dean of Students for Community Life at Trevecca Nazarene College, began his time on the hill during the summer of 1990 until his death on February 7, 1995. He spent the majority of his time on campus helping plan student activities and sharing his personal testimony with those around him. Tim was known for his sense of humor and serving attitude. Tim's death affected the student body in such a dramatic way because he was directly involved with students everyday at Trevecca. He will be greatly missed and irreplaceable. It is with great admiration and much love that we dedicate the 1995 Darda in memory of Dean Timothy F. Whittaker.

Joy isn't the absence of trials, but the presence of God.

Who dares to teach must never cease to learn. — John Cotton Dana

WHO'S WHO

Thank You Lord for the time You have given me at Trevecca. May everything I've learned here be used to show Your love to others. — Keri

"Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." — Galatians 6:9-10

What you want to become tomorrow, is what your thoughts are today. — Unknown

"My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever." — Psalms 73:26

WHO'S WHO

"Every good and perfect gift is from above coming down from the Father of heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows." — James 1:17

In a world that changes so rapidly and absorbs everything that is present from day to day, it is important for me to realize that every aspect of my life is dedicated to a living God who never changes. I thank Him for all He has given to my minut life. I give my Senior year as a memorial in remembrance to my father, Ray Allen Coffey, who taught me life is about living. He was a good man and an excellent artist who will be painting the skies forever. There is not a day that goes by that he is not thought of and missed.

I leave Trevecca with a fondness of heart knowing I am leaving as a better person than when I arrived. Thanks for the memories. — Lisa

LISA MICHELLE COFFEY

RICHARD SCOTT HUMSTON

If you ever shoot for the moon and miss — at least you'll be among the stars. — Anom.

"Seek first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things will be added unto you." — Matthew 6:33

From there to here, and Here to there, Funny things are everywhere. — Dr. Suess

If you want to be successful; Know what you are doing, Love what you are doing, and Believe in what you are doing. — Will Rogers

WHO'S WHO

The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. Attitude, to me, is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, than failures, than successes, than what other people think or say or do. It is more important than appearance, giftedness or skill. It will make or break a company ... a church ... home. The remarkable thing is we have a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past ... we cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string we have, and that is our attitude ... I am convinced that life is 10% what happens to me and 90% how I react to it. And so it is with you ... we are in charge of our Attitudes. — Attitude by Charles Swindoll

"And He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: For My strength is made perfect in weakness." — II Corinthians 12:9

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference."
— The Road Not Taken, Robert Frost

WHO'S WHO

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out before us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:1-2

God doesn't call us to fail — He calls us at the level of our best, to do our best. — Gary Henecke

You may encounter many defeats, but you must not be defeated. In fact, the encountering may be the very experience which creates the vitality and the power to endure. — Maya Angelou

WHO'S WHO

No one has the right to look with contempt on himself when God has shown such an interest in him.

REFLECTIONS OF ACADEMICS

Many times we wonder how we manage to survive under the pressure of academic life. As we look back to all the late hours spent studying and the anxiety we experienced during those times, we can only see how these accomplishments are a part of making us a well-educated person.

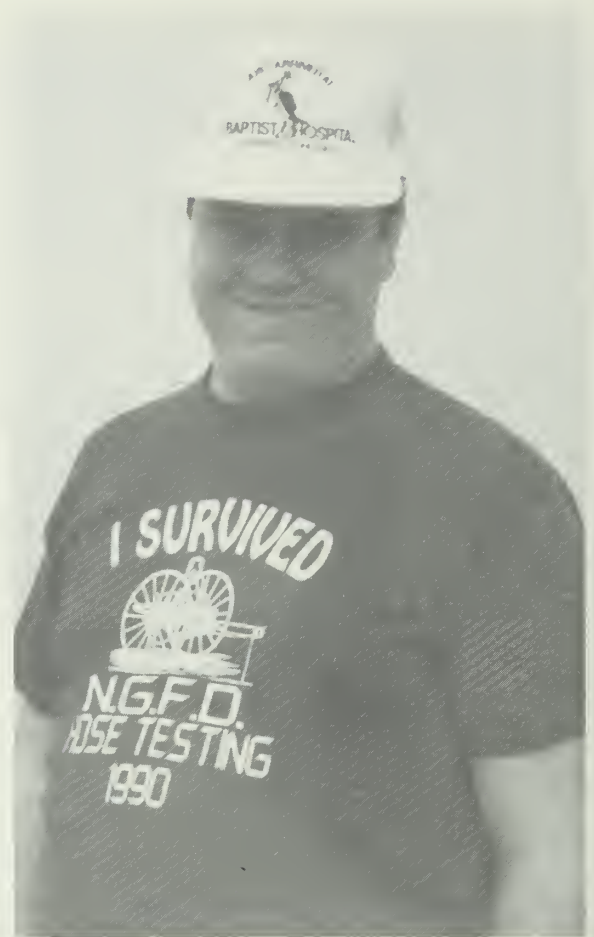

As we rush through our years here at Trevecca, we barely stop to realize that we are defining ourselves as people — discovering who we are and getting closer to the achievement of the goals we have set for our future. We must press toward that future and also take time to reflect on our many well deserved achievements.

The teacher as a holistic developer is the role preparation model for the Teacher Education program at Trevecca. Education professors stress the importance of cognitive, psychomotor, social, affective, and spiritual development of their students. This perspective enables education majors to become positive role models when they reach their own classroom.

Education majors receive either a Bachelor of Science in education with specialization in Early Childhood Education or in Middle Childhood Education and a Bachelor of Science in secondary subject areas.

The education professors at Trevecca represent excellence in their field. They provide personal education as well as insight into the life of a teacher from their own personal experiences. This is seen through the well accomplished Teacher Education graduates from Trevecca.

C.A.U.S.E.

C.A.U.S.E. stands for Colleges and Universities Serving and Enabling. This is exactly what a total of twenty-two Trevecca students and faculty did in Venezuela after all of the books were shut for the summer. From May 9th through May 16th the compassionate ministries team to Venezuela spent most of the seven days painting, helping with community clean-ups, holding children's rallies, and engaging in sports evangelism with people in the community. Only great things were heard from these team members about what happened while they were there.

The compassionate ministries team members included: Kenneth Couchman, Chuck Hale, Beth Pierce, Jennifer Horst, Leann Ogg, Sean Poloskey, Julia Cruse, Lee Eby, Carol Eby, Melissa Poloskey, Miranda Payne, Holly Miller, Jennie Pennell, Christa Sanders, and Jennifer Kahle.

From June 1st through June 9th the medical team from Trevecca went to Venezuela. While there they attended to 700 patients in the towns of Maracaibo and Machiches. The medical team from Trevecca included: Louis Arena, Norma Alvarado, Kim Weaver, Lisa Wilson, Cliff Moore, Travis Lane, and Chris Shavers.

Dale Daniel, Jason Hoefler, Jeff Callan, Billy Robinson, Gary Scott, JJ Miller, Brian Zgonia, Darell Shroyer, Chris Gurnett, Alex Irons, Student Asst. Alan Shorter

The 1995 Trevecca Baseball team had one of its best starts in five years under the direction of Head Baseball Coach Dave Altopp. The Trojans were 17-8 half-way through the season and 3-0 in the TCAC. It seemed as though the wind was taken out of the pitching staff after Billy Robinson went down with an injury. However, there was a bright spot in freshman pitcher Gary Ball, who picked up the slack and went 7-4 in his rookie season. Roger Brown and Gary Scott were both selected TCAC All-Conference, Mid-South All-Region and NAIA All-Americans.

Senior Players: Jason Hoefler, Mike Miller, Kevin Brown, Jeff Callan, and Roger Brown

Senior third baseman Roger Brown ended his final season as one of the all time best players in school history. Roger started every game at Trevecca for the last four years, playing in 209 games. Brown went on to re-write the record books. Those records included career at bats, hits, home-runs, RBI's, total bases, and assists. With numerous team, All-Conference, All-Region, All-District, and All-American awards, Roger has been a major impact for the Trojans and the rebuilding process for Coach Altopp. He will be very much missed in the future of Trojan Baseball.

DARDA ... Darda, the yearbook of Trevecca Nazarene College received its name from the Old Testament (I Kings 4:31). Darda was a bearer or holder of wisdom, he was listed among the very wise, yet surpassed by Solomon.

As I bring this 1995 Darda to a close, it is hard to believe that the time here at Trevecca has come and gone. The time that God has given here is something that will never be forgotten and memories I will cherish for a lifetime.

Among the many experiences for me at Trevecca, being the 1995 Darda editor has ranked up there among the most challenging. Along with my staff have attempted to bring to you a yearbook which reflects the academic, social, and spiritual areas of TNC. I apologize for any mistakes, misspellings, or exclusions within this book, any such things were in no way intentional.

At the beginning of the 1995 school year Tonette Rowland was the Darda editor. She resigned at the end of the Fall semester due to illness. Thanks Tonette for getting us started. I then began my duties as editor. Thank you to the few staff members who stuck with me. Shannon, thank you for your willingness to jump in and help when you did. You became a lifesaver when I thought I was going to drown. Matt, thanks for your sense of humor that kept me sane and for your quickness to learn something that was brand new to you. Melinda, thanks for your time and efforts that won't be forgotten. Claudia, I wish you all the luck next year and have confidence that you will do your very best. Lanagayle, you have been such a great help to me with photography. Your pictures fill this book and reflect exactly what I wanted them to. I will never forget your willingness and patience.

There have been so many faculty and administrators who have encouraged me through this challenging endeavor. Thank you all who believed in me and encouraged me through this time.

Thank you to the smiling and encouraging faces of my special friends. Your constant reassurance reached me during the times really needed it.

Thank you to my family who have continually had confidence and faith in me. They have encouraged me and stood with me from the beginning. I love you and appreciate all you have sacrificed for me.

And finally, I look to my hope and peace — Jesus!! He has shown me Himself in every part of my life, how faithful He is through anything I go through. Christ has been my constant encourager and friend. Thanks to all who have enabled me to help "reflect" on the 1995 year at TNC.
