DR. WILLIAMSON ELECTED TO SUCCEED THE LATE R. T. WILLIAMS AS GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT

Dr. Williamson, graduate of John Fletcher College which is now Kletzing College (our new Nazarene school in Iowa), has recently been elected General Superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene succeeding the late Roy T. Williams. Joining the Nazarene Church at an early age, Dr. Williamson has made one of our greatest preachers. The story is told that before he was called to preach he had an older brother who was a very fine preacher; his brother died suddenly and Dr. Williamson felt called to take up his ministry.

SPICE of LIFE

D. H. SPENCER

SPICE OF LIFE

A few weeks ago I chanced to overhear a conversation between Mr. Vaughn and his young son who often accompanies him to different places of duty on the campus. Mr. Vaughn was making an adjustment on the boy's suspenders and the boy was asserting that it was not being done correctly. When his father told him that his way of making the adjustment was no better than the way it was being done, the boy made a very significant statement. He said, "I know it don't matter, but I want it how I want it."

Our lives are constantly in need of adjustments and we are quite often, if not at all times, unable to make them satisfactory ourselves. We, too, have a Father who is interested in doing these things for us. He is the One Who created us and Who knows all about our nature, our needs, and our capabilities. He is interested in planning our lives for us and knows just how to work them out to the best advantage for both His purpose and our good. All too often, however, we let Him know that His way may be good, but that we want things "how we want them."

There is no such thing as having our lives reach the limit of their possibilities of joy, service, and blessing unless we follow God's way. Our limited range of knowledge and experience makes it impossible for us to plan our lives on the basis of what has gone before. Our inability to foresee future events makes it impossible for us to plan our own lives in order to take advantage of those future events. It is only as we follow an all-wise God Who sees the whole picture at once and plans our lives accordingly that we truly develop at all. Any other kind of growth is only superficial and will eventually crumble as will a house build on sand. Those who have followed God in the past have succeeded and those who have not followed Him have failed. Jesus prayed for God's will to be done in Him and our prayer should be "... nevertheless, how you want it, Lord."

THINK BEFORE VOTING

As we near the close of another school year we will be facing the problem—who will be the leaders on our campus next year? In the next few days the major officers for '47 will be elected. Who will you vote for?—for your friend, even if he does not have the ability, or for the person who will best fill the office?

When you are given a ballot, don't just vote to get it over with, but first think of the office and then vote for the individual who is capable of serving in that capacity.

By the time you read this article the Student Council will be elected. But remember that the editors, associate editors, and business managers of the Darda and Trev-Echoes are yet to be elected. The Christian Workers officers will also be elected soon. Let each of us vote for the person who will serve us best.—Editor.

FROM THE TOWER

The nine-thirty bell just rang and reminds me of the wedding bells in Birmingham, Saturday night. The Vaughan's, Leda Mae Ballard, Paul Hocutt, and Jean Love went down for the event. Doris Stafford and Dorothea Stevenson were attendants. Don Sumner was best man and is back for a few days before going to New York to work till school opens next September.

Charlotte Hampton was on the campus last week-end after a long absence. The idea of a major in music next year is tempting, she agrees.

Oh, we're really making progress here at Trevecca. There will be new members of the faculty, new subjects, and new campus improvements. I went over the new road Sunday morning and it's really going to be nice. In a short while we'll be starting on a new men's dormitory top. There'll be a place for our G. I.'s to live yet. By the way, have you met the latest additions to our campus? Get acquainted with them—they're nice fellows—Clyde and A. D. Boone from Mississippi. (I hope that's right. You see, I haven't met them either.) We're glad you're back, anyway, fellows.

HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS OBSERVE SENIOR SKIP DAY

To Shelby on that pre-arranged outing? The juniors?—and on Senior Skip Day? Precisely, kid, precisely—the juniors and no one else. However, your vocabulary is slightly off, 'Twas an "airing"—yep, and of our own class, feet, hose—'nuff said! Conclusions drawn here, if drawn, but no connections, ask Fluffy.

Juggling over in "Station Wagon 13" around one p. m. with Rob driving, we girls and Smitty had to push, with a little assistance from James Spruill.

Wandering mostly as pleased us after we were there, we took in the Sycamore Lodge, the open fireplace and also ventured down a flight of rocky steps to the Cumberland. Some investigated the boats on the river; others sought amusement elsewhere, namely, the playground. At the playground we rode the Jericho swing, and don't think for even one second that the boys did all of the work (pushing). After pumping awhile in the swings, walking around the lake, and racing a little pace, we were ready to make back-tracks toward food; so therefore we did.

On the way back to "eats" we watched a game of baseball for awhile. Swell game and good teamwork.

Ever played "Pop the Whip," "Wagon-Wheel"? We did, and Jolene and a couple of others had some rough tumbles as results; 'twas fun though.

At last we ate; it was nearly dusk. We thought at first there wouldn't be enough food, from the way Mary Ruth and those boys were nearly starving. We all really were starving—well, not quite. Potato chips, cheese and luncheon meat sandwiches, olives, pickles, Toll House cookies, Pepsi-Cola and more yet—I can still taste them, especially the Pepsi-Colas. Baseball boys crashed our party, or should I say picnic? They left us a little food, but they won the game, so we encouraged them.

Remember the signal, kids, the windshield wipers would start when the motor did? We had to push it and after June and Smitty had filled the water tank via Pepsi-Cola bottles, all thirteen of us crowded into the car and got back to the campus during study hall. Choruses were sung as the grand finale of the day.

James Spruill had to leave early so as to play on our softball team. Sure did miss him!

Senior Class successful, aye? Ask any Junior! Wonder what the seniors thought when they were discovered very early Tuesday morning by loyal juniors, namely, June Swinford, Fluffy Calkins, and James Spruill.—Barbara Baldwin, class reporter.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES SPEAK TO MISSIONS CLASS

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Chenault, returned missionaries from Japan, addressed Mrs. Johnson's mission class last Thursday.

Brother Chenault read and commented on the article, "Japan Has Seen a Great Light," which appeared in the April 15th issue of the Herald of Holiness. Mrs. Chenault spoke concerning the country and people and gave some interesting facts of their work in Japan. During their talks, pictures of interest were shown to the class.

Brother Chenault emphasized the fact that Japan offers a wonderful opportunity to the Church of the Nazarene. With the fall of Shintoism, the whole nation is turned toward Christ and the gospel. So urgent is the need of the Japanese people that Brother and Sister Chenault both said they would be eager to return to Japan if it were possible for them to go.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Fashion forecasters who say that the "sweater girl" is on the way out had better take a back seat. A room to room sweater survey of 300 freshman women by the Bee Gee News gives the figure at 2900 sweaters.

That's nine and two-thirds sweaters per freshman, which at the estimated average of $6 per sweater represents an investment of $17,400.

Four roommates dug deep into their bureau drawers, found that among them they owned 54 sweaters!

An old Duke tradition is for students to stick their wads of gum into a certain "gum tree" on East Campus. Thus not only are the janitors saved endless hours of gum-scraping from the desks but it will also help to perpetuate this rare species by addition of each little blossom.

The Biology Department of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., is looking for a modern Pied Piper who played his pipe so sweetly that nine dead cats being used for dissection purposes were enticed out of the refrigerator in the biology lab.

The dead pussies had been worked on for the last six weeks and may be somewhat worse for the wear. Since the biology lab is on the river side of the campus, dragging the river is being considered.

Briefly the facts are these: Each of the nine students in the course brought a dead cat for dissection purposes at the beginning of the term. The total haul, then, for the piper, at $7.50 per cat, amounted to $67.50, though what market there is for dead cats posed somewhat a problem.

All indications point to an inside job, for it would probably be difficult to get the cats outside without getting inside. In case this last seems a little involved, a window was found broken open in the biology lab. Dr. William Taylor, assistant professor of biology, was still so unnerved by the occurrence the next day that the noise made by the carpenter repairing the window led Dr. Taylor to draft three husky students to catch him, thinking the carpenter, the criminal, returned to the scene of the crime.

Paw-prints of the cats have been shown to "Butch", the campus bloodhound, and he is reported to be investigating the matter with his usual deceptive lethargy.

HOBBY FAIR TO BE HELD SOON

The hobby fair is an annual affair at Trevecca College. In this exhibit are displayed the projects of classes, individual hobbies, and collections, which include scrapbooks, picture collections, wood and metal exhibits, and articles from foreign lands.

This year the exhibit will be in the library and is under the direction of Mrs. Gresham. The date will be announced later, but plan now to enter your hobby in the all-day exhibition.

DR. WILLIAMSON ELECTED

A Former E. N. C. President

Dr. Williamson has not only served the church in the ministry but also in the educational field. For a number of years he was president of Eastern Nazarene College in Boston, Massachusetts. It was under his presidency that the school paid off an indebtedness of 300,000, the enrollment was greatly increased, and the college became an accredited institution.

At the last General Assembly Dr. Williamson was nominated to the office of General Superintendent and in the early voting he was almost elected. Being a great man, a great preacher, and a great leader, he has served as pastor of the Austin Church in Chicago and First Church in Cleveland, Ohio. At the time of his election to his present office he was pastor of First Church of the Nazarene in Kansas City, Missouri. For a number of years he was General N. Y. P. S. President.

Dr. Bracken states, "It would have been exceedingly difficult to have made a better choice."

D. from there. His excellent speech was to the young people attending the occasion. To them he made four wishes:

1. Wish for a Peaceful World
2. Wish for a Busy World
3. Wish for a Sober World
4. Wish for a Reverent World

After the benediction, pronounced by Dr. A. K. Bracken, the group remained for a picture to be made.

A. C. P.

One member of the Purdue English department recently cooked himself a beautiful stew, but unfortunately this was just too much for one person. He asked an ex-army man to dinner and at last reports the G. I. was still staying with the prof because rooms are hard to find.

DR. BRACKEN, BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER AT COWAN, TENNESSEE

Sunday morning at 11:00 Dr. Bracken spoke at Cowan, Tennessee, to the graduating eighth grade class of the public school.

The College Hill Trio sang "My Task" and "Prayer for Peace." Dr. Bracken's address was concerning the opportunities of Joseph.

Dr. Bracken and the trio returned to Nashville in time for the evening services.

STORK VISITS CHEEKS

On April 27, the dear bird commonly called the "stork" visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cheek, leaving with them an eight-pound-ten-ounce daughter, Cheryl Glenn. Mr. Cheek is a student here at T. N. C. This makes twice the "stork" has visited them.
